DAY 3 STRATFORD UPON AVON – MANCHESTER (B)

Breakfast at hotel. This morning make your own way to the starting points of the tour of Hop On Hop Off Bus Tour. A vibrant, compact town boasting a rich architectural heritage, the list of things to do in Stratford-upon-Avon is as impressive as it is varied. Delightful shops and top-quality restaurants and pubs line the medieval streets, all within walking distance of the scenic River Avon, and surrounded by wonderful Warwickshire countryside. Stratford-upon-Avon is well-known for being the place of birth of William Shakespeare, generally recognized as the English language's greatest-ever writer. Having been brought up and schooled in the town, the imprint the dramatist has left on the area is significant. There are five 16th century houses in and around Stratford related to Shakespeare that you can visit, including Hall's Croft and Anne Hathaway's Cottage. Later make your own way back to your hotel and then departure transfer to the train station to connect your train to Manchester City (Standard Class Train Ticket Included). Arrive and transfer to your hotel. Check into hotel. Overnight in Manchester.

DAY 4 MANCHESTER – EDINBURGH (B)

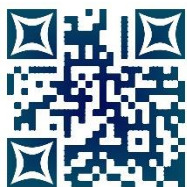

Breakfast at hotel. Morning free in Manchester to explore this city on your own. Manchester is the home of great football, bold new architectural projects and the pivotal City of Britain's Industrial Revolution, Manchester still retains a friendly and welcoming atmosphere. Make your own way to see the Trafford Centre, paradise for shopaholics. See the world's first railway terminus, find out the connection between the railways and the football teams, and visit the world's first Urban Heritage Park. In the late afternoon you will be transferred to Manchester Train Station to connect to your train to Edinburgh in Scotland (Standard Class Train Ticket Included). Arrival transfer to your hotel. Check into hotel. Overnight in Edinburgh.

DAY 5 EDINBURGH (B)

Breakfast at hotel. Make your own way to meeting point for City Sightseeing Edinburgh Hop On Hop Off Tour.
